SERVICE IMPLEMENTATION

The Education and Care Services National Regulations require policies and procedures to be in place, in particular, managing the administration of first aid in the service.

Our service is committed to this policy and adhering to the correct practices and procedures to support the administration of first aid.

The health, safety and wellbeing of children will be our first priority and adhering to the safety measures that we have in place for the administration of first aid will form the criteria to meet these guidelines. We will advise families of the implementation of this policy and welcome any feedback or input. Through administration of first aid, we will ensure families are made aware of risks and therefore make informed decisions.

Our educators and staff play an important role in all aspects of the service, and we value their input. We endeavour to support our staff with training to allow them to act in accordance with administration of first aid.

First aid can be defined as the emergency treatment of illness or injury in order to maintain life, to ease pain and to prevent deterioration of the patient's condition until professional medical assistance is obtained.

First aid follows the three P's.

Preserve Life – stop the person from dying- keep others safe.

Prevent further injury- stop the person from being injured further – keep the area safe.

Promote recovery – try to help the person heal their injuries through administering first aid.

We will comply with Acecqa recognised First Aid Qualifications and require that all educators be proficient in First Aid, CPR, Asthma and Anaphylaxis at all times.

An approved first aid qualification means a qualification that can assist with the following:

- Emergency life support and cardio-pulmonary resuscitation
- Convulsions.
- Poisoning.
- Respiratory difficulties.
- Management of severe bleeding.
- Injury and basic wound care.
- Administration of an auto-immune adrenalin device.

Safe Work Australia First Aid in the Workplace code of practice recommends that First Aid qualifications be renewed every 3 years.

Safe work Australia First aid in the workplace code of practice and the Australian Resuscitation council recommends that CPR qualifications be renewed annually. Our employees must adhere to these recommendations.

Continuous Improvement

We are dedicated to the ongoing improvement of our practices and procedures through the following actions:

- Conducting regular reviews and updates of this policy with all stakeholders.
- Actively seeking feedback from children, families, and staff members.
- Providing targeted skill development and training for staff when areas for improvement are identified or when gaps in policy and procedure implementation are observed.

Each member of the team plays an important role in the implementation of each policies guidelines, and they are outlined as below but not limited to the following:

The Approved Provider

- Will ensure at least one educator or team member holds current approved first aid qualifications and has current approved anaphylaxis management training and current approved emergency asthma management training and is in attendance at all times that children are being educated and cared for by the service, including on excursions and during periods of transportation.
- Will ensure that obligations under the Education and Care Services National Law and National Regulations are met.
- Ensure they take reasonable steps to ensure that the nominated supervisor, educators, staff, and volunteers follow the policy and procedures.
